JESUS REDEEMS

Foreword

Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus

I am well acquainted with my beloved brother in Jesus Christ and a wonderful man of God Bro. Dharmaraj Robert Monickam. I praise God for the book 'Daily Promises' that Bro. Dharmaraj Robert Monickam has written.

With the help of the Holy Spirit, brother has written this book so that anyone who reads this book will be able to memorize at least one promise from the Bible everyday with ease.

This book has been compiled in a very unusual manner. This book is special and has been designed in a perfect way so that anyone can read this book daily and get benefited.

As the Bible says in Psalm 119:105, 'your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path'.

This book will help you receive God's blessings and lead a holy life if you begin to read it sincerely every day. May the Lord Jesus bless abundantly each and every one of you who reads this book.

I pray that God's blessings will be on Bro. Dharmaraj Robert Monickam so that he will be able to bring out many more books.

Let the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Your brother in Christ,
Mohan C. Lazarus

Sharing ministry experiences with dear
Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus at 'Jesus Redeems' Nalumavadi.

I thank Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus from the bottom of my heart for writing the foreword and making this book special.

I still recall the days many decades back of my visits along with my father to meet Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus – when I was facing a wall of difficulties in the course of my ministry unto the Lord in the year 1987.

I thank the Lord Jesus Christ for enabling me to participate in the 'Prayer Tour' and for the blessings that he has showered on me.

Whenever I travel to my ancestral home at Anandapuram village for personal reasons or for doing God's work, I feel great joy in visiting the headquarters of Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus' "Jesus Redeems Ministries" at Nalumavadi which is not far from my village.

I participate in "Thirappin Vasal" prayer meetings and get blessed.

I also thank God for giving me an opportunity to participate in the Jesus Redeems Ministries TV programme "The vessel that God uses" a programme designed to encourage God's missions and the growth of ministry.

I thank Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus once again for writing the foreword for this book and providing me with the encouragement in many ways to do God's ministry.

May the Lord bless Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus's ministry abundantly so that many more people worldwide would be blessed through "Jesus Redeems Ministries".

*Greetings in the sweet name of our Lord and Saviour
Jesus Christ.*

I praise God as He continues to bless many people through the "Daily Promises" ministry.

Let us praise the Lord who has helped us bring out three volumes of the Daily Promises issue in Tamil and one volume in English so far.

When I meet people from different places and learn how God has helped them receive spiritual blessings through the "Daily Promises" I feel I should continue doing this God-given ministry in a more special way.

Two wonderful brothers have taken the "Daily Promises" - "Self Study Project" Vol. 3 in Tamil and the volume that was published in English to Saudi Arabia with a desire that the name of the Lord should be glorified. Let us pray that these two brothers should be blessed by the Lord abundantly.

I can certainly say that this project would not have been possible without the care and support of the Holy Spirit towards the "Daily Promises" ministry. Let us also pray with burden for everyone who carries out the mission of our Lord.

By the grace of God I was able to deliver the Lord's message for three days in January at Jesus Nagar, Kottackal.

Dr. D. G. S. Dhinakaran

in Kerala state. I praise God and thank Pastor Shaju for extending the invitation to preach there. My heartfelt thanks also goes to his family and every member of his church. The Holy Spirit gave me a refreshing experience. I felt many receiving the blessings of the Holy Spirit. I was filled with wonder at the revival that was taking place among the talented youth. Let the name of the Lord be glorified.

Before leaving for the meeting in Kerala, I had sent an e-mail requesting Bro. Dr. D. G. S. Dhinakaran to pray for the meetings. He had replied to my e-mail with his prayers for God's blessings to be poured out during the meetings. I remembered his prayers and praised God from the bottom of my heart.

Kind attn: Mr. Dharmaraj Robert Monickam,

My dear brother,

Thanks for your e-mail I hope in the Lord that, the Lord has done greater things in your Prayer

Meetings. I shall continue to remember you and your family members in my prayers. May God use you mightily according to Josh.1:9 "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

Your loving brother,
(D.G.S.DHINAKARAN)

As an evangelist he won souls over to Christ by expressing the love of God. Above all, he demonstrated that the Lord Jesus Christ is still alive and with us through wonders and miracles. No one will forget this great man of God who fought the good fight of faith and finished his race.

He was responsible for the change in my life, for my taking up God's work. Let us pray that the Jesus Calls ministry that Bro. D. G. S. Dhinakaran founded to keep growing worldwide so that many more people come to know the Lord.

Please pray for the "Daily Promises" ministry. Participate in the "Daily Promises"- "Self Study Project" and examinations and grow in the knowledge of God.

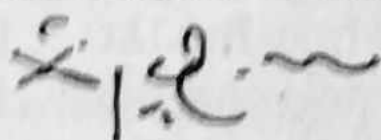

"And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32)

Let the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ lead each and every one of us in truth and bless us with freedom from all our trials permanently.

As we read in Jeremiah 15:16, "... And your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart;" I pray that God will bless each one of us with everlasting peace and happiness that this world cannot give.

Your beloved brother,

Dharmaraj Robert Monickam

A TRIP DOWN MEMORY LANE

What amazed me most about Bro. Dhinakaran's sermons was his ability to provide numerous references from the Bible to support his message without ever having to open the Bible. He used to refer to at least 60 verses from the Bible if he preached for one hour. This filled me with wonder greatly. I was eager to find out the secret of this from Bro.D.G.S. Dhinakaran himself and I waited for the right opportunity. Finally the opportunity came during a meeting in Chennai in the year 1977, specially arranged for all the representatives of the "Jesus Calls" Ministry.

Following the meeting Bro.D.G.S. Dhinakaran invited me and my family to his home. While at his home, I finally asked him how he was able to quote so many references during his sermons. He looked at me and said, "Brother, you have to read the Bible again and again." The words that he spoke to me on that day seem to speak to me even to this day. Whenever I read the Bible again and again I think of Bro.D.G.S. Dhinakaran.

If we follow the principles and possess the virtues of Bro.D.G.S. Dhinakaran who so wonderfully carried on the Lord's ministry, we will definitely glorify the name of God. May God bless each one of us with the ability to read the Bible again and again just like Bro.D.G.S.Dhinakaran.

Dearly beloved "Daily Promises" partners in Christ,

Loving greetings to you all.

I am glad to share the Lord's message from the Book of Judges with you through this issue of "Daily Promises".

THE LIBRARY

PALAYAMKOT - 627002

Our Lord is unchanging in His orders and in His promises. He is truthful. He hates the worship of any other God or following a secular path. It displeases Him. Whenever the people of Israel were guilty of the above sin they were tormented by their enemies.

It is extremely distasteful for God if He tells us to leave something but we still have a hold on it even if we are only holding on to a part of it. We need to be extremely devoted and determined in serving the Lord and keeping His commandments. It is very sad to note that even today children of God continue to follow the example set by the Israelites during the Old Testament years, by seeking the Lord when one faces trials and forgetting Him as soon as He delivered them from tight situations. Let us not forget that the book "Judges" chronicles the tests and trials of the Israelites that they encountered as a result of their misdemeanour towards God.

It thrills us when we read about the leaders of Israel that God chose to deliver the people of Israel from the clutches of the Midianites, Philistines, Ammonites and Moabites, and the miraculous victories that God gave Israelites.

The deliverance that the Lord gives is far from what we can anticipate in terms of means, numbers and military strength. Gideon's paltry 300 men army and his empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers for weapons, Samson's weapon of a donkey's jawbone that killed 600 of the Philistines – all these illustrations from the Bible, don't they explain that salvation comes not by horses or bloodshed on the battlefield but by the Spirit of God? The story of Jephthah sacrificing his daughter to God is an example of how we should never compromise on our commitments to the Lord.

Samson's life is an example of how an illicit relationship can prove to be a trap and eventually bring about one's downfall.

In brief, the entire book of Judges is a historical account of the difficulties faced by the people of Israel whenever they disobeyed the Lord's commandments. It is also an account of how God took compassion on the Israelites and raised Judges to bring deliverance to the people of Israel during those times of difficulties.

The book of Judges not only serves as a warning to us, the new age Israelites, who have been saved by the blood of Christ but also offers hope that God has compassion on us and whenever we cry unto the Lord He is there to save us.

THE HISTORY OF RUTH

The four chapters of the book of Ruth describe the history of the family of Elimelech, a resident of the town of Bethlehem of the land of Judah. The following characters feature in the book of Ruth: Elimelech, his wife Naomi, his sons Mahlon and Chilion, his daughters-in-laws Orpah and Ruth, his kinsman Boaz and another unnamed kinsman. Ruth was special among all these people and by her righteous life was able to build the entire family up. Hence it is appropriate that this book of the Bible bears her name.

The events that happen in our life do not happen by chance. They happen according to the will of God. The book of Ruth explains this truth very well to us. To manifest on this earth as the Messiah Lord Jesus Christ, we see the hand of God creating a generation that will be holy, filled with peace and virtue for the arrival of Christ.

Four prominent characters from the book of Ruth have left us with excellent examples:

1. Naomi

Naomi is an example of an excellent mother-in-law. Due to the famine in Judah, she left the land with her husband and their two sons to Moab. But within ten years of migrating to Moab she lost both her husband and her sons. Though she was greatly distressed by the loss of her beloved family and extreme poverty, we can see calmness in her speech. The love that she showers on her daughters-in-law, compassion, her openness in offering them a new lease of life after the death of their husbands and her sense of responsibility are all examples that we could emulate.

2. Ruth

The young widow Ruth is an example of the ideal daughter-in-law. When her mother-in-law Naomi was languishing in deep poverty without any support, she made a decision to be with her through thick and thin. This determined spirit of hers fills us with amazement. She worked on the fields for her mother-in-law. She shared the food that she earned for herself with her mother-in-law with whom she shared everything that happened during the course of the day. She followed whatever Naomi told her to do. These virtues of Ruth made her a blessed woman. The words as mentioned by Boaz in Ruth 2:11 & 3:10 give a snapshot of the good qualities of Ruth.

3. Boaz

Boaz was a wealthy landlord. He treated the poor kindly. He was known for discipline and integrity. He was a law abiding citizen. He never retired until the job on his hands was done. It was no wonder then that of his lineage were born King David and other kings. The Messiah Jesus Christ too was born of the lineage of Boaz.

4. Elimelech's nearest relative (name not mentioned)

He had the first right to buy the land which he agreed to do, but he was not willing to marry Ruth. Prov.31:10 says, "Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies." He loved the property but neglected the 'precious jewel'. So he lost the blessing of becoming an ancestor in the line of the Messiah His life is recorded in the Bible as a warning for us.

Emulating the good qualities of love, gentleness, composure, patience, tolerance and uprightness which characterize Ruth, Naomi and Boaz will draw God's blessings on our families.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Romans

The Apostle Paul writes this epistle to the churches founded by the Jews in Rome and other believers. Empowered by the Holy Spirit they received on the day of Pentecost in Jerusalem, they took the gospel to Rome. Apostle Paul had heard of the churches in Rome but he had never been there. He had heard about their faith and expresses joyfully his desire to see them face to face.

Paul is intelligent and articulate and like a skilled lawyer presents relevant facts about the gospel clearly and forthrightly in this epistle to the believers in Rome. Paul emphatically stresses that all had sinned and there is no way apart from Christ to be saved from sin's consequences. Salvation is available to all. We are saved by grace through faith in Christ. The faith that Christ shed His blood on the cross for our sins only helps us to accept His gracious offer of forgiveness. No matter how hard we try to live good and moral lives, we cannot earn salvation. God in His wonderful love offers us eternal life. It is a gift from our loving heavenly Father. Paul explains this in the third, fourth and fifth chapters.

Paul clearly states that faith helps us to realize that we are made free from the futile attempt to be right with God by keeping the law but by the unbounded love of Christ for us. Paul deals elaborately with the law and its part in a Christian's life. He says that we are saved only by faith not by observing the law. Submitting to circumcision is not enough. God desires us to have a circumcised heart that is right with God.

In chapter nine Paul expresses his concern for the Jews who rejected Jesus Christ. But Jesus Christ by his death united the Jews and the Gentiles in one body.

Faith in Christ transcends the difference between the Jews and the Gentiles.

The tenth chapter deals with the importance of God's great message of salvation to be shared with others. The dire need to send people to all places to preach the good news should be realised.

The generous contribution of believers in Macedonia and Achaia for the poor among the saints is a lesson for us to emulate.

Upholding one another in prayer is the responsibility of the believers. Our heart goes out to Paul when he appeals to the Roman believers to join him in his struggle by praying for him to be rescued from the unbelievers from Judea.

In the last chapter Paul sends greetings to all his close friends and those who supported him in his ministry.

Dearly beloved, when we read Paul's epistle to the Romans may the good Lord help us to analyse our commitment to Him and to establish firmly our fellowship with the other believers.

316. Propitiation by His Blood

Rom.3:25 [Christ Jesus] whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed,

Ministry imparting knowledge of the Bible

Dear brother in Christ,

Loving greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I praise God for this opportunity to share with you the blessings I have received from God through the 'Daily Promises' ministry.

My parents are retired teachers but my father continues to serve the Lord as a Catechist. As a child I was keen on attending church and Sunday class. I was leading more or less a self disciplined life.

In the month of April 1994, when I had completed my schooling I attended the 'Thirappin Vasal' Prayer Meeting at Nalumavady with my mother. I was nineteen years old at that time. God intervened in my life during that meeting. What touched me most and made a proformed impact on me was a Tamil song which tells about Jesus redeeming us with His blood. That day I accepted Jesus Christ as my Saviour and received the assurance of the blessings of forgiveness of my sins. God filled me with the Holy Spirit also on that day. Since then I have been growing continuously in the Lord. God blessed me with good education and a witnessing life in the College..

God has given me a suitable life partner who is doing God's work apart from his job as Administrative Officer at Ranji Aaron Memorial Trust. I.T.I., Anandapuram and I am serving as a Tamil Teacher at T.D.T.A Ranji Aaron Memorial Hr.Sec.School, at Anandapuram. Majority of the students of our School are from non Christian background. I conduct prayer meetings for the students every Thursday. God has graciously made me get involved in the 'Daily Promises' ministry. Our students, both Christian and non- Christian, participate in the Bible Tests under the Self Study Project. Through this ministry children are motivated to spend more time in the Bible and memorize many verses. May God bless this ministry and help it grow continuously for His glory.

FELLOWSHIP MEETING

God enabled us to hold the fellowship meeting of the 'Daily Promises' ministry at the residence of Bro. Reginald John at Nazareth on 29.05.08.

Eleven of us had assembled there to spend a few hours at the feet of the Lord. The Psalmist says "Your law is my delight" (Ps. 119:77). We shared among ourselves the blessings we received from God through His Word such as deliverance, salvation, faith, peace and hope.

Mrs. Rajathi Dharmaraj's concern was that she though old now is able to read the Bible with unquenchable thirst, but children these days are least interested in the Word of God. She wondered what could be done to encourage them to read the Bible. Mrs. Suguna Monickam expressed the idea that parents should take the trouble to read the books in the Bible with their children starting with books narrating interesting episodes. Besides parents should give them an interesting outline of each book they read which will prompt them to gain interest. Everyone gave their ideas with great enthusiasm. We prayed for various prayer requests in particular for the students who these days are not giving importance to the scripture classes in Christian school. We also prayed for the 'Self Study Project' especially for the needs to be met. Finally Mrs. .Suguna Monickam gave God's message based on the verse, "...Here the word of the Lord... Give ear to the law of our God" (Is.1:10). She pointed out that when apply God's Word to our life apart from the eternal reward that awaits us, we can also enjoy many benefits of obedience in this world itself. Disobedience would bring serious affliction and great destruction as God has warned.

We spent our time in singing, praising God, meditating on His word and praying from 11.00 A.M. to 1.00 P.M. All of us felt the power of prayer on that day. We decided to stand firmly on the Word of God, to get more involved in this ministry and to pray more for this ministry.

REVIVAL IN CHURCH

AN EXHILARATING TESTIMONY

I was born in a small hamlet called Maravanvilai near the village of Pitchivilai close to Tiruchendur town. Twenty years ago, only a few elderly women and young children used to participate in the Church services. We used to celebrate Christmas, New Year and Easter by wearing new clothes, cooking, serving and eating sumptuous dinners. In the evening we would all pile up onto vehicles and go to the cinemas in Tiruchendur town or arrange for screening of movies in the village itself. During the annual feast called 'Asanam' usually held during the summer months, friends and relatives who had gone to work in the city from the village, would return to the village for festivities. Liquor would flow freely. Naturally there would be brawls after the festivities were over. Even those who came to celebrate Christian festivals would have no knowledge about Jesus Christ. Children never used to show much eagerness in learning about Christ in their scripture classes at school.

I did not pay much attention to studies. I was just thinking that Jesus Christ too was one of many gods. After finishing school I went to cities like Mumbai, Chennai, Coimbatore and Madurai in search of a job. I found work with Tamil newspapers such as Dinakaran and Malai Murasu, but I left soon after quarrelling with the management. I was unable to find a stable job anywhere. Finally, in the year 1988 I found job as a Security Officer with Sun Paper Mills in Cheranmadevi. I was 23 years old. The job was not well paid. I began to feel depressed during those days. I was insecure about my future. Addicted to movies, I often watched 3 shows a day. I got addicted to smoking too. Then I began to read the Tamil Christian monthly magazine 'Varugaiyin Thoothan' which my friend Mr. M. Savarimuthu subscribed to. I read a testimony that the magazine carried in one of the issues. A woman who was living an immoral life met a pastor who explained to her about the love of Jesus Christ. She received Jesus into her heart and started living a new life in Him. She began to serve God. But in a few years she contracted a dreadful disease and died but by then she had won many souls to Christ. The pastor who had won the lady to Christ was at her side when she died saying, "You have won more souls to the Lord in a short span of ministry than I have done over a long period." When I read this story in the magazine I began to shed tears. I felt some thing like a surge of electricity enter my body. I could not control my tears. When I shared this with my friend Mr. M. Savarimuthu in the evening, he told me "The Holy Spirit is working in you." I began to wonder how the Holy Spirit could start working in a person who was addicted to various vices and who did not even attend church. But I started reading the scriptures. I began to develop an intense dislike for cigarettes and smoking. From being a movie addict I began to hate the sight of television.

I participated in the kabaddi competition during the annual sports meet at Sun Paper Mills. During a game, I sustained injuries to my abdomen and fainted. I was admitted to the hospital in a critical condition. Then I was referred to the emergency department at the Palayamkottai Government General Hospital. The same night the doctors prepared to operate on me to save my life. When I was writhing in agony I cried out to God. Then I became unconscious. I did not know what happened to me the next two days. I was in the Intensive Care Unit for six days. Then I was transferred to the General Ward. I continued to be in the hospital for two more weeks. Many preachers came to the hospital to pray for me. They gave me Christian books and tracts. My sadness began to disappear. I became happy. I began to read the scriptures in depth after I was discharged from the hospital. I read the teachings of Jesus Christ in the Gospel of John. I read of His suffering on the cross and I cried. I confessed my sins to the Lord and I dedicated myself wholly to Him.

I went to my church and shared my conversion experience. When I was asked to pray I prayed from the bottom of my heart. The power of the Holy Spirit took hold of me. My faith increased by leaps and bounds. I confessed that there was a God and that He was Jesus Christ. I started believing that every verse from the Bible was the truth. I found true joy. I was eager to share my new found joy with my church congregation, my friends and my relatives. We organized fasting prayers and all-night prayer meetings at our church. We also organized regular cottage prayer meetings and annual revival meetings. Many people came to know the Lord through these meetings. People who did not know how to pray started praying.

I felt the same way as King David did when he said, "It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn thy statutes." (Psalm 119:71) and "Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word."

The Lord Jesus Christ saved me from the throes of death, washed away all my sins and gave me a happy life to lead in Him. As a result, I was able to establish fellowship with many believers and preachers and their ministries.

I am living as a witness to Christ and am a member of the Church of South India. There is revival in the Church. Pray for continued revival for the glory of God.

I was introduced to the Daily Promises Ministry of Bro. Dharmaraj Robert Monickam. I first participated in the activities of this ministry so that the members of my church would also be benefitted through this ministry. The Bible tests conducted by the Daily Promises Ministry are different from the other tests based on the Bible. The focus of Daily Promises is on memorizing the Bible verses which is equivalent to meditating on the Word of God. The verses that we memorize speak to us. When we preach we are able to remember the promises from the Bible and use them more effectively in our ministry. I realized that this ministry is being done with great sacrifice to encourage common people without any profit making intent. The focus of Daily Promises examinations is to study one particular book of the Bible at a time for an extended period so that people can study the Bible at depth.

Dear partners in the ministry of Daily Promises, many people believe that only children should memorize the verses from the Bible. I am 44 years old. I too am memorizing passages and verses from the Bible even when I am involved in my earthly profession. It inspires and gives me great enthusiasm in my day to day activities. I encourage my children Mercy, Merlin and Amos also to memorize verses from the Bible.

Your brother in Christ,

Note from the Editor :

I have never met this Brother Anandaraj personally. But when I looked at his marks that he had secured in the Daily Promises Self Study Project examinations I understood the desire in him to study the Word of God and memorize and meditate on the verses from the Bible. I visited his house at Maravanvilai along with Bro. A. Soundararaj (Administrator, Daily Promises Self Study Project) and Bro. Selvaraj (Organizer, Examination Centre No 19). I met his family. But I could not meet him as he was away at work. Then I contacted him on telephone and asked him to write his testimony. He readily agreed.

My wife and I praised God after reading Bro. Anandaraj's testimony. When my wife shared the testimony during a prayer fellowship many were blessed. When preaching the Word of God during many such meetings we share Bro. Anandaraj's testimony to bring glory to God. Let us pray that God will raise up many who are filled with the love, compassion and grace of God, and a desire to win souls for Him like Bro. Anandaraj in all villages who will lead more and more people to the Lord. Let us pray with burden for this wonderful brother and his family and the ministry they serve for God.

Dear sister and brother in Christ,

I greet you in the name of Jesus Christ early this morning. God gave Nirmala and me the opportunity to meet you both at your residence last night. Praise be to Him. I was pleased to meet you as an I.M.S. mission worker after a long break.

I was happy to receive your wonderful book "Daily Promises". I read the whole book page by page tonight since 1:30.P.M. It is amazing to see the promises arranged efficiently and systematically under appropriate titles. Though I have had theological training and hold degrees, I appreciate your efforts which will lead the readers to the knowledge of the Bible. When advertisements about the ministries exalting individuals is prevalent everywhere, it is a surprise to see you with all your spiritual experiences do God's work in a calm, simple, comprehensive and thoughtful way. May God help you to continue this ministry for ever.

The personal testimonies and testimonies of people who are blessed through this ministry in different ways which appear here and there are uplifting.

You have printed the precious 'promises' of God and the testimonies of God's children in expensive quality paper at modern high - tech press. It is highly appreciable. God has called you for this honorable ministry and He will help you continuously. I conclude this letter praising God for giving you both pious parents, sisters and brothers, children and Anandapuram and Tuticorin congregations. I am happy to tell you that your books will come in handy during the regular I.M.S. fellowship meetings.

With love and prayers,

Yours in Christ,
Jesudoss Edward
